

Romans: Living and Breathing the Gospel
Week 13: The Power of the Resurrection
Romans 8:1-11; Luke 24:1

1. As you think about all the events of the past year, what have you learned about the way news is reported? Do you have more or less confidence in what you hear? Why?
2. Why do you believe the Resurrection is true? What are your doubts? What would you say to someone who does not believe that Jesus actually rose from the dead?
3. Where does the Resurrection fit in the big story of the Bible? Why does it matter theologically? How would things be different without the Resurrection?
4. According to Paul, what specific role did the Holy Spirit play in the Resurrection? Why does that matter to you personally? What does it mean to say that the Spirit “dwells in you”?
5. Think about your own stage of life and present circumstances. How does the truth of the Resurrection and the real presence of the Holy Spirit in your life encourage you today?
6. Who in your circle of influence would benefit from your story of how God is working in your life right now?
