

Romans: Living and Breathing the Gospel
Week 21: Living Sacrifice
Romans 12:1-8

1. Do you feel like your life is full of “sacrifice”? Why? What does that look like for you?
2. Why does Paul say that we should give our whole lives to God? What is the basis for his appeal? Is his plea more logical or emotional?
3. How do the truths of this passage challenge you to grow in humility? What does it mean to look at yourself with “sober judgment”? In what ways are you “thinking of yourself more highly than you ought”? In what ways are you thinking too lowly of yourself than you ought?
4. What is one thing that is difficult for you to give to God? Why? What would it actually look like for you to trust God more fully in that area?
5. How is the logic or “pattern” of Jesus different from the “patterns of this world”? Why does following Jesus make more sense and provide more hope?
6. Where do you see discouragement, arrogance, or complacency in your life as a follower of Jesus? How do you need the truths of this passage to comfort or challenge you today? How does this truth lead you to humble yourself and exalt God?
